ROOT & BRANCH is delighted to JOURNEY with

KATHY GIBBONS SCHUCK, RCWP
Kschuck55@gmail.com

Kathy’s roots are in northern New Jersey, a suburb of New York City. As the second of six children in an Irish Catholic family, her early life revolved around family and parish. By the time she graduated from secondary school, Kathy had attended public, parochial and private schools and moved from the eastern United States to the Midwest. Travel and moving out of one’s comfort zone has been a recurring theme.

Kathy holds Master of Arts in Theology, Bachelor of Science in Sociology, and International Coaching Federation (ICF) certified Professional Coach credentials. She was ordained through Roman Catholic WomenPriests (RCWP) in 2015 and serves on the pastoral team at the intentional community of St. Mary Magdalene in southeastern Pennsylvania. Since March of 2020, Kathy has been instrumental in facilitating Zoom as a platform that has enabled the community to gather virtually and expand internationally.

Professionally, Kathy’s agility is demonstrated by the diverse roles she has held, from fund raising for an Archdiocese, to corporate telecommunications, to international development, to pastoral care, to human resources.

Today, Kathy works as Director of Career Transition for CCI Consulting, facilitating workshops and accompanying individuals and teams who have lost their jobs as they search for their next role. Prior to CCI, Kathy worked for nine years as Director of International Marketing for the Sisters of the Holy Child raising awareness and funds to build a clinic and organic farm in West Africa. Vivid flashbacks of cultural immersion trips to Ghana and Nigeria sustain and ground Kathy to this day.

Kathy currently lives in a suburb of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the east coast of the United States, with her husband, Stan. Their daughter, Ann, lives in Baltimore, Maryland.
